Linsley Institute.

Lieut. L. S. Van Duzer, the new naval officer detailed for duty at the Linsley Institute by the secretary of the navy, will arrive in the city to-day. The Institute opens next Monday, September 9, at 9 a. m., and the prospects for a large attendance are good. The corps of instructors for the coming year will be as large and efficient as any in the history of the Linsley Institute. There will be no change in the uniform of the cadets.

In the Criminal Court.

In the criminal court yesterday Dick Carson plead guilty to adultery and fornication, and Judge Huges fined him $20 and costs, and gave him ten days in jail. There were a number of denunciations and other motions up, but nothing of interest transpired in connection with them.

All were from Out of Town.

Clerk Hook yesterday issued marriage licenses to the following named parties: Charles Bergman, aged thirty-six, and Elizabeth Koehler, aged thirty, both natives of Germany and residents of Pittsburgh.

Austin Kail, aged twenty-eight, of Steubenville, and Susanna Dismore, aged twenty-one, of Rochester, Pa.

A New and Bold Swindle.

Leonard Cline, an old soldier living near Greenbrier, Monroe county, O., was swindled out of $5 in money and a note for $113, by two sharpers, one day last week. The two strangers drove up to his house in a buggy drawn by two fine dapple gray horses, and told him they were officers of the pension department. They claimed that he had been drawing too large a pension and demanded the return of the excess—$148—threatening that if he did not they would take him to Columbus and then to Washington City, to stand trial. Becoming frightened, Mr. Cline gave the men all the money he had—$35—and a note for the balance, after which the slick sharpers skipped out—to look out for other easy victims, no doubt.

To be Tried for Assault.

Among the cases to be tried at the present term of court is that of George Mager, indicted for assault on Harry Smith more than a year ago. The case will doubtless attract a great deal of attention, owing to the prominence given to it in connection with Mager's pardon from a jail sentence for an assault on Thomas O'Brien, Jr., and the position occupied by Prosecuting Attorney Howard, who defended the accused in Marshall county, notwithstanding the pending indictment in Ohio county. It is learned on good authority that Mr. Howard will not conduct the prosecution in the case to be tried here, but that he has selected Attorney John C. Palmer to perform the duty.

THE BAR ASSOCIATION

Anticipating Great Things at the Meeting Here.

STATE LAWYERS MEET NEXT MONTH

And a Programme is Being Arranged which Guarantees an Enjoyable and Profitable Session—Annual Address by Hon. Randolph Tucker, and Papers by Several Distinguished Lawyers of the State.

The next meeting of the State Bar Association will be held at Wheeling, October 30 and 31. The Ohio County bar association some time since appointed a committee to arrange a programme for a banquet and other entertainments for the visitors, and provided the necessary funds to enable the committee fittingly to discharge its duties. This committee meets to-day to begin its active work, and this afternoon at 3 o'clock the local bar association meets in the court room of Part I, circuit court.

The usual business of the meeting of the State Association consists of the reading of papers and the discussion of them by members of the association, and the reports of committees. Papers have been promised by Messrs. Ambler, of Parkersburg, Holt, of Huntington, Harris, of Lewisburg, Poundstone, of Buckhannon, and others who were appointed by the executive council.

Attractive features of the meeting will be the annual address on Wednesday evening and the banquet of Thursday evening. The annual address will be delivered by Hon. J. Randolph Tucker, professor of law at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Virginia. Professor Tucker's standing as a lawyer and law teacher, and his renown as an orator promise an address which, while of especial interest to lawyers, will be very inviting to the general public. Mr. Tucker's public career has been long and useful. Before the war he was attorney general of Virginia. After the war he represented his district in Congress for three or four terms, but becoming tired of public life he declined renomination and accepted the position he now holds, of professor of law at Washington and Lee.

He is known personally to many West Virginia lawyers, and to all of them by reputation, and they promise themselves great pleasure in meeting and hearing him.

The annual banquet of the local fraternity is an occasion for the discussion of all sorts of good things, and, while the details for the coming event have not been fully arranged, it is safe to say it will not fall behind its predecessors.

A large meeting of the bench and bar of the state is expected, and the occasion will probably be graced by the attendance of distinguished members of the federal judiciary, some of whom have already promised to be present if possible.

In Squire Phillips' Court.

Dot Gray, of McKinney, was arraigned in Squire Phillips' court yesterday on a charge of stealing $5 from J. L. Knobe, in Alley C. She was sent to jail.

An insane man from Wetzel county was also sent to jail to await formal disposition of his case. He said his name was John Smith. He became so violent that it required four men to hold him down in the patrol wagon. He came here to be treated by a physician, but became violent after his arrival.

An Illustrated Talk.

Prof. George E. Little, of Washington, D. C., entertained and instructed the public school teachers at the institute the past week. As he talked he rapidly and skillfully drew with different colored crayon on the black board.

Prof. Little will give a talk to the young men at the Young Men's Christian Association hall to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. His subject will be Sowing and Reaping, and the talk will be illustrated on the board. All men are invited.

Mrs. Hart's school for young ladies and small boys will resume Monday, September 16, at 9 a. m. Parents are requested to be present at the opening.

ATTEND the lot sale at Moundsville, September 17 and 18.

The Ladies Know a Good Thing.

That's why James A. Garfield and Lucy R. Hayes Circles, Ladies of the G. A. R., selected the Pan-Handle as the best route to Louisville. They will leave Wheeling at 6:30 a. m., Wheeling time, Monday, September 9, on a special train, making the trip by daylight, as Louisville will be reached in time for supper. Ticket Agents J. G. Tomlinson or John Bailie, Wheeling, will sell round trip tickets for $7.25.

This Week Only.

We have ten Sewing Machines, Singer, Domestic and Standard, which will be sold at or below cost, if sold this week. Call at No. 60 Twelfth street.

Free Tickets to the Fair.

Would not surprise you as much as the fine Dairy Butter, three pounds 50 cents, at Fitzhugh's Butter Stand, 1105 Market street, in Roth's meat market.

The space occupied by the Stove display of B. Fisher at the Fair is altogether too small to permit a full and complete line of their goods being shown. Customers are requested to call at their office, 1616 Market street.

The Pan-Handle Dyeing establishment, owned by John Heilmann, at No. 1431 Market street, is the best equipped house of its kind in Wheeling. In addition to the dyeing and cleaning department a corps of first-class tailors are employed, who can do repairing as well as it is possible. Clothes and ladies' garments, cleaned or dyed, can be made to look like new. Satisfaction guaranteed.

THE EYES.

It has been demonstrated that there is more eye and head ache from the defects of refraction and the use of glasses not properly adjusted than from all other causes, and that it is absolutely necessary to have the eyes scientifically and skillfully examined and fitted with glasses to secure relief and prevent injury.

Those needing spectacles, or their eyes tired or head ache when reading or sewing can consult and have their eyes examined for glasses without charge by Prof. Shedd, the Scientific Optician, 1110 Main street, next door to Snook & Co.

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

A great responsibility rests on us as Leading Boys' and Children's Outfitters. And we realize it. Your confidence is too freely placed in our reliability for us to let up on our watchful care even for an instant. In a few days Juvenile Wheeling will start into school, and many are the fruits of our harvest of dressings they will take along with them. The boys and children were never better dressed than they can be this season. There is more variety to select from, and every grade has its standard raised—not the price. You want tough qualities, but you want them in genteel patterns, gracefully cut, and sewed together with the strength of iron. WE ARE SUPPLYING JUST THAT SORT. To the best of our knowledge we haven't a doubtful wearer in all the hundreds of Suits we've got to show. So sure are we of it, that we make our GUARANTEE a gratuity with every purchase. If you ever have cause for complaint, the return of your money pays the penalty. We have searched every fashion mart in this country and brought its best, its choicest novelties away with us, and we've had to stand on our tiptoes to mark the QUALITIES, THE PRICES ARE SO FAR BELOW THEM. If you take the trouble to make a few comparisons, the light of superiority will shine still the stronger on us.
